DEATH OF A PROMINENT BUSINESS MAN .-Mr. Geo. F. Kinsey, one of the rising business men of this city, died yesterday of consumption. Mr. Kinsey was for years one of the offfcers of the Peoples' Bank, which position he retained to the close of the war. He was subsequently a partner in the wholesale clothing house of Pearson & Co.

RAPID PASSAGE FOR SAILS.—The schooner Lilly, belonging to the excellent line of vessels plying from this port to New York, consigned to William Roach, Esq., and which left the latter place on Monday, at ten o'clock A. M., arrived off this bar on Thursday. Captain Francis brought a New York Herald of Mon-

Pringle, Esq., factor, Adger's wharves. She also had on board six bales new upland cotton, from the Peedee River, consigned to Frost & Adger and Mowry

THE THLEGRAPH OFFICE.-For some day's past the manipulators of the electric wire have been unusually busy in setting their house in order. The result appeared last night in an improved arrangement of the tables and batteries. These (four in number) are now placed in parallel lines near the front of the building; the new arrangement being far more convenient for the operators.

Prince Fraser, Simon Brown, George Brown, Cossar Tasbird, Ramon Crawford, Jack Jonkins, Phœnix Doctor, Butcher Doctor, Adam Geddes, Samuel P. Youngblood, Robert Washington, Byas Brown, Mitchell Wade, and Lieut. Moore. All these men were armel with a musket, and one man had a pistol. We all west up to Mr. Charles H. Wilson's to tell him my errand. He was not at home. I then told Mr. Leman what was my errand. He asked me where I got the power from. I told him from tae "Body"—the same pieviously mentioned. He told me that he feared the law would decide against me; but I said that I would try it. I then went into the field, he accompanying me the whole way. Some boys came to Brown first; they came quietly and told him he must submit. I soon came up and, saluting the prisoner, said: "Mr. Brown, I am sorry, sir, you are my prisoner." He replied, "Well, sir, I will ROCKED IN THE CRADLE OF THE DEEP .- Yesterday morning two of the crew of the steamship James Adger went in one of the wheels in order to arrange some portion of the machinela made ry. A few more revolutions would have killed them.

soner, said: "Mr. Brown, I am sorry, sir, you are my prisoner." He replied, "Well, sir, I will go with you wherever you command." I said, "You have committed an assault and batter, with intent to kill, and I intend to take you to the Supreme Court and let them judge of your case." I brought him then to town and lodged him in the guardhouse. I also brought down Maria Brown, and, upon her affidavit, Brown was lodged in jail. On reaching the guardhouse I said, here is a prisoner, but told the officer of the day that I had no warrant from a magistrate. He said that he could not then commit him, but, in consequence of the lateness of the hour, he consented to retain the prisoner. I went to Magistrate Whiting early the next morning, and he gave mean order on the guardhouse to detain the prisoner on his warrant. The woman was afterwards freed, and Brown committed to jail. HIGH WATER. -The spring tide yesterday, aided by the strong east wind that was blowing, caused the water to rise much higher than risual. The streets east of the Bay, between Laurens and Calhoun, were completely submerged, the water being over a foot deep, and in some instances entering the houses. The low and exposed streets on either river were affected in the same way. It was reported that the water on the bar was twenty feet deep, but unfortunately this increased depth was only temporary, and lessened with the going down

ATLANTIC WHARVES.-These fine wharves to the private residence of Mr. Wilson, of whom twenty-four were armed with guns and the remainder with pistols. They were under the command of John White and Lonion Scott, who proclaimed that they were State troops, and the regulators of the island. They demanded the whereabouts of one Sampson Brown, the foreman of the plantituo, and went to the field and arrested the said Sampfour in number, are now in complete order, and present accommodations that old King Cotton may well be proud to inhabit. The extensive sheds and warehouses have been "swept and garnished," and one of the former, which was used to store wood, has been refloored and repaired, and will hereafter be devoted exclusively to cotton. The long ranges of factors offices, all of which are tenanted by first-class firms, are an indication that all the facilities offered by the lessees of the wharves will be in demand, as the planters have succeeded in making fair crops, and a goodly return of bales is expected.

Base Ball .- A match game of base ball will be played this evening at the west end of Broad and Tradd streets, between the second nine of the Carolina and the first nine of Germania Clubs. The game will be called at three P. M. precisely.

An exciting contest occurred on Thursday ast on a vacant lot near the west end of Beaufain-street, between the Athens and Rosehill Base Ball Clubs-juveniles. A magnificent bat, claborately shaped and painted, was the bone of contention, and the game was played with great spirit, but fortune decided in favor of the Rosehillians, who distanced the Athens Club by several scores. The latter fully expected to be proclaimed the victors, and could not stand the disappointment, but bedewed the said judgment, interest and cost to the said Simpson Bobo, with interest, in case the Supreme Court of the United States should decide that judgments for the purchase of slaves in South Carolina, before the war, in 1860, were not recoverable by the plaintiffs, in such judgments.

On complying with this proviso, this injunction to remain of force till the said decision is made; and if the complainant, Simpson Bobo, does not pay over the money as above stated, then the defendant is allowed to enforce his the chaff lot with their tears. The Rosehill Club were moved to compassion, renounced their pretensions, and the bat was retained by the Athens boys. Their opponents were not all satisfied, and from the murmurs of the discontented it is clear that the bat will be played

Their pretensions, and the bat was retained by judgment forthwith, and this injunction is dissolved. In the meantime, the defendant have leave to file his answer to complainant's bills.

UNION PACIFIC RAILROAD ARE NOW PINISHED AND IN OPERATION. Although this road is built with great rapidity, the work is thoroughly done, and is pronounced by the United States Commissioners to be first-class in every respect, before it is accepted, and before any bonds can be issued upon it.

I apidity and excellence of cons'ruction have been secured by a complete division of labor, and by distributing the twenty thousand men employed along the line for long distances at once. It is now probable that the

The case presented was a bill in equity for an injunction upon the plaintiffs in a suit at law for the recovery of a debt for the purchase of slaves. We have, after long study and many experiments, succeded in producing what we claim to be the BEST BITTERS AND MOST PLEASANT BEVERAGE in use, compounded as they are of the most valuable ingredients known to Pharmacy. As a TONIC AND AP-ETIZER it has no equal-reliable in all B-LIOUS DUBANGEMENS, resulting from miasmatic influences, so prevalent at the South, and change of diet, climate and water. In offering to the Southern put lip our great TONIC AND BEVERAGE, we only ask for it a fair trial, feeling assured its own merils will soon ensure its becoming a favorite at the South. It has all the pleasing qualities of a "Liquent," and though under a small volume, is four times mero active than other prevarations. It is almost indispensable for r constituting the blood in females suffering from debility and loss of appetite, and for persons exhausted by nervous excitement or over-exertion. The benefit of these Bitters are felt immediately. Dose is a wine glass full before meals.
